Cape Town, March 10.—[Special Cablegram.]—Considerable uneasiness is felt here over the fate of Mafeking. Rumors that the town was relieved are followed by rumors that it has fallen. The latter report is strengthened by the statement that the Boers took the siege guns which they had around Kimberley to Mafeking.

Boers Surrendering Arms.
Cape Colony, March 10.—[Special

fifty-five rifles and seven thousand rounds of ammunition have been given up to the British authorities.

tremendous ovation.

Moving on Biggarsburg.
Lorenzo Marques, March 10.—[Special

head laager near Glencoe says that scouts report that 12,000 British troops are moving on the Boer position around Biggarsburg.

Deny the Peace Rumors.
London, March 10.—[Special Cablegram.]—The Telegraph, Times, and Manchester Guardian assert this morning that the rumor of peace proposals

GENERAL J. P. STEYN.
are premature. The Guardian claims high authority for the denial that any peace overtures were received at the foreign office.

The war office reports the casualties at Poplar Grove on March 8, as three killed and thirty-eight wounded.

Kruger May Take Command.
London, March 10.—The Berlin correspondent of the Daily Mail says:
"I learn that there is dissension between President Kruger and General
Joubert and that the latter has resigned.
Probably President Kruger will assume the chief command."

General Schalkburger and other prominent commandants are also likely to resign for similar reasons and because President Kruger ignored their advice to make peace overtures after the first Boer victory."

On Towards Bloemfontein.
Poplar Grove, Orange Free State,
March 10.—General French, who is ten miles ahead, reports that his front is clear of the Boers. All other reports tend to confirm the state of disorganization of the Boer forces, Transvaal as well as Free State. The general impression is that the further progress of the British to Bloemfontein will not be opposed.

Will Destroy Johannesburg

London, March 10.—A correspondent of the Daily Mail at Lourenço Marques, telegraphing Thursday, says:
"I am reliably informed that high Boer officials openly avow that the British flag shall never fly at Johannesburg.
The place will be razed to the ground and the mines put in readiness to be exploded electrically from the fort, as occasion requires."

"Most of the gold mines, except those which the government controls, are in a shocking state. They are flooded and the machinery is rusted and being wilfully smashed."

CENTRAL AMERICAN STATES IN TROUBLE

New Orleans, March 10.—[Special Telegram.]—Large quantities of arms

likely among the Central American countries.

WISCONSIN DOING MUCH FOR FARMERS

Agricultural Experiment Station of Vast Help to the Grangers of This State.

Washington, March 10.—Secretary
Wilson today sent to congress his report of the agricultural experimental stations of the country. It is a voluminous document, and will be of great interest to the farmers.

In Wisconsin the work included bacteriological, chemical, and practical investigations in dairying, investigation in agricultural physics, special studies of soils, drainage and irrigation; feeding experiments with various cattle, calves, sheep, and pigs; horticultural investigation, chemical analysis of sugar beets, feeding stuffs, and fertilizers.

This station has an income of $30,- 125, $15,000 of which was derived from the government appropriation, an equal amount from the state, and $125 from fees. The state has continued to maintain a liberal attitude towards the station, through its publication of correspondence, as well as through the College of Agriculture and the Farmers' Institute.

The station is bringing results of its work to bear in an increased measure on the practice of agriculture in the state.

POPULAR LOAN IN BRITAIN.

Applications for $150,000,000 of War Bonds Invited by Bank of England.

New York, March 10.—The Bank of England announces that applications will be received for subscriptions to a war loan of £30,000,000. The rate of interest has been fixed at 2 1/2 per cent per annum. The bonds will be redemmable at par on April 5, 1910. The issue price has been fixed at 98 1/2.

New York, March 10.—J. P. Morgan
& Co. have been authorized to forward to the Bank of England applications that may be made in this country for allotments of the bonds of the British war loan. The purpose is merely to afford an opportunity to Englishmen here, and to American individuals and corporations who subscribe, to do so.
Several subscriptions have been received already. The largest was $10,- 000,000 by the Mutual Life Insurance company.

DIES AT HIS POST.

Engineer of an Illinois Central Train Dies in His Cab.

Chicago, March 10.—Joseph E. Hoffman, engineer of a passenger locomotive
on the Iowa division of the Illinois Central, died at his post of duty Friday night with his hand on the throttle. Hoffman's train was due in Chicago at 12:30 Saturday morning.
When it arrived at Hawthorne the speed was not lessened, as is the custom, and the fireman glanced across the cab at Hoffman in surprise, for at Hawthorne there are a number of switches. It chanced that the track was clear. The fireman noticed that something was wrong with the engineer, and crossed the cab. Hoffman sat upon the seat, his hand was on the throttle, and his face was turned toward the track ahead. The fireman was horrified to find that he was dead.

ST. JOSEPH VOTES NO.

St. Joseph, Mich., March 10.—In order to ascertain the sentiment of the citizens of this city in regard to the agitation of the consolidation of St.
Joseph and Benton Harbor, and thus avoid a special election, an official straw ballot vote has been in progress for the last week, which resulted in 217 votes being cast against the consolidation proposition, while 57 votes were cast in favor of the plan.

GOOD CHANCE FOR THE FIRST DISTRICT

REPUBLICAN GUBERNATORIAL CANDIDATE WANTED.

Chairman J. B. Treat's Boom Keeps on Growing—Says, However, That He Is Not a Candidate at Present—Bitter Municipal Election Contest
on in Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, March 10.—Chairman J.
B. Treat of the state central committee is in the city on his way to Washington and it is rumored that upon his return, if information he secures in the east is favorable, he will announce himself as a candidate for governor. Mr. Treat lives in the First Congressional district, which has no representative on the state ticket, and the only other candidate that has shown any considerable strength is Ira Bradford, who lives in the seventh district, the only other district in the state that has no representative on the state ticket; and it is quite generally understood that all the old state officers will be nominated with the exception of the governor.

Mr. Treat would have the support of the so-called Scofield machine if he desired to become a candidate. The gubernatorial field will not be filled until the first district is heard from, and either Mr. Treat, Mr. Whitehead, or Dr.
Keynolds will be in the fight in due time. This is now quite generally accepted as the fact. Mr. Treat was in consultation with several leading republicans at the Hotel Pfister today concerning the state campaign.

"Every paper in the state," said Mr.
Treat yesterday afternoon, "has taken its turn suggesting a candidate and in this way it chanced that my name has been mentioned. I can say that at present I have no aspirations in that direction, and that I certainly am not prepared to enter the field as a candidate."

Democrats First in the Field

Milwaukee democrats will be first in the field this spring with their nominations. Their candidates for alderman, supervisor, justice of the peace, and constable will be nominated Monday afternoon. On Monday morning their judicial convention for the nomination of a county judge will be held at the Davidson theater. In the afternoon, at the same place, the democratic city ticket will be named. On Monday evening the democrats will hold seven district conventions for the nomination of justices of the peace and constables. The republicans will be in the field with their ticket a week from next Monday. Nearly every active republican in the city is working like a beaver to defeat Henry J. Baumgartner, who is seeking the mayoralty nomination with populist support.

Henry C. Payne Going East

Henry C. Payne will leave for the east this afternoon, and will be absent several weeks, devoting some time to the convention plans at Philadelphia.
Mr. Payne has been very busy with business cares for a number of weeks,
and his trip will be partly in the nature of a vacation.

Dable the Only Doubtful One.

Probably all but one of the ten Republican Congressional conventions will be held on April 24; the one exception being the Second, where there is the liveliest contest in the state on the part of candidates who hope to be able to succeed Mr. Dable. Calls have already been issued for the conventions in the Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth districts, and the others are looked for within the next day or two. It looks as though all the republican congressmen, with some doubt as to Dable, will be renominated.

IT IS BUSINESS NOT AGNOSTICISM

Bishop Joyce's Opinion On Recent Losses of Methodist Church Membership.

Chicago, March 10.—Bishop I. W.
Joyce of Minneapolis, was at the Sherman House yesterday on his way to Wabash, Ind., where tomorrow he will dedicate a new Methodist Episcopal church. He talked freely concerning the decrease in the membership of the church during the last year which he said was a condition that did not obtain alone in the Methodist church.

"I do not attribute this falling off in membership to any growth of agnosticism among the people," said the bishop,
but rather to a spirit of general carelessness and an undue absorption in social and business affairs to the exclusion of religious matters. Men are so busy now taking advantage of the present prosperous times to wipe out the losses which came with the long period of depression that they have had little time for anything else."

MRS. PHILLIPS WANDERS AWAY

Wife of City Treasurer of Eau Claire Disappears and Returns.

Eau Claire, Wis., March 10.—Mrs. B.
S. Phillips, wife of City Treasurer Phillips, disappeared at 10 o'clock Thursday night, and no one had the slightest clue to her whereabouts. Officers and friends dragged the Chippewa river, searching in vain for her body. At 9 o'clock last evening Mrs. Phillips returned home in a state of great nervous excitement. She had on no outdoor garments except a shawl. It was impossible to ascertain from her where she had been.

NO CORSET DISPLAY IN HIS NEWSPAPER

REV. SHELDON SETS OUT TO BE A VERY STRICT CENSOR.

Employees Must Not Smoke—Topeka Preacher Gives Some Idea How
He Intends to Run His Christian
Daily—Circulation Will Run Over 300,000.

Topeka, Kan., March 10.—The Rev.
Charles M. Sheldon, who will assume absolute control, business and editorial, of the Topeka Capital for one week, beginning next Monday, got out his blue pencil today, and incidentally gave some idea of how he intends to run a Christian newspaper.

The first order issued by Mr. Sheldon in his capacity of quasi owner
and editor was as follows:

"I wish," he said, to Harold T. Chase, associate editor of the Capital, "that you would notify the employees please not to smoke."

The request was made smilingly and in that peculiar manner so characteristic of Mr. Sheldon. He wanted it distinctly understood that no smoking would be permitted, and yet he did not wish to place the order in a way that might offend anyone.

Advertisements Under the Ban

Many advertisers seeking space in the Capital next week fell under the ban of Mr. Sheldon's blue pencil today. He scrutinizes closely every advertisement presented. Not a single patent medicine
"ad" will appear during the week.
"Some patent medicines have good qualities," Mr. Sheldon said today, "but there are so many frauds that I have not the time to sift them out, hence all must go."

He rejected a corset advertisement today, because he believes tight lacing is injurious to women. He says he would discard this class of advertisements for the further reason that a picture of a woman fitting on a corset is suggestive and coarse. Liquor cure advertisements are thrown in the waste basket on the ground that the whisky habit is not a disease and therefore does not demand medical treatment. A score of magazine advertisements were today thrown into the waste basket because the magazines contained whisky and corset advertisements.

Stands by His Own Town

Kansas City retail houses cannot get into the advertising columns of the Capital. Mr. Sheldon holds that a home paper should protect home merchants.
Speaking of another ad in advertising today he said: "No bargain day sales where 50-cent goods are marked down to 49 cents for one day only will find space in the Capital during this management. Twenty dollar suits going for $12.98 ads will be conspicuous by their absence. These are falsehoods on their face, and I will not tolerate them."

The woman's page of the Capital in the Sunday edition will contain no cuts of fashionable society women in decol-lete costumes, nor will there be any illustration of "the latest in hosiery or garters."

That this experiment—an object lesson, Mr. Sheldon modestly calls it—will be received with extraordinary interest, the flood of subscriptions now pouring into the Capital office seems to abundantly demonstrate.

Nearly 300,000 Subscriptions.

There are today actually entered on the mailing lists 261,609 subscriptions.
News agencies are just beginning to be heard from, but just what number of papers will be sold through these channels no person connected with the Capital management dares make a prediction.
Dell Keiser, the business manager of the Capital, who has been very conservative in his estimates of circulation, believes that Sheldon week will show a circulation of over 300,000 copies.

Europe Is Interested.

England, Scotland and Ireland will be supplied by Sir John Newnes, publisher of the Tit Bits, the Strand and the Westminster Gazette, who has acquired the absolute control of that territory for Sheldon week. The first number of the Sheldon Christian paper will appear in Chicago Wednesday morning, in New York Thursday morning and in London and England generally the following Wednesday.

MOUSE RESTORES LOST VOICE

Woman Who Had Not Talked For Years Regains Her Speech.

Pittsburg, March 10.—Mrs. Annie Mathers, a widow, has been speechless for several years. Her condition was caused by illness and she could not speak above a whisper. Yesterday she opened a closet in her house and came shuddering upon a mouse. Mrs. Mathers tried, to scream, forgetting she had lost her voice. She was amazed to find that the impediment which prevented her from speaking had been removed, evidently by fright, and that her voice was the same as before her illness.

MRS. SPRAGUE TAKEN TO OHIO

Daughter of Chief Justice to Be Buried in Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, O., March 10.—The body of Mrs. Kate Sprague, daughter of Chief Justice Salmon P. Chase, formerly of Cincinnati, was brought here last night from Washington. Services will be held this afternoon, when the body will be buried beside that of Chief Justice Chase in Spring Grove cemetery.

A DETROIT MOTHER BEARS QUADRUPLTS

Two Boys and Two Girls—The Babies Weighed an Average of 3 1/2 Pounds Each.

Detroit, Mich., March 10.—Mrs.
Michael McDonald yesterday gave birth to two boys and two girls. The babies weighed an average of 3 1/2 pounds at birth.

Mrs. McDonald and her husband came here from Canada about six months ago. The mother is about 35 years old, rather stout and florid complexion. She does not recall that any of her ancestors were favored with twins, triplets or quadruplets, but Mr. McDonald is a twin.

Mr. McDonald is a day laborer. He worked all day yesterday and again today, justifying his industry on the ground that he would have to work every blessed minute to earn a living for his family. Mrs. McDonald is very proud of her unusual achievement.

PORTO RICAN BILL HAS RIGHT OF WAY

Will Come Up in Senate Next Week
As Unfinished Business—Bitter Debate On.

Washington, March 10.—[Special Telegram.]—The Porto Rican bill will again have the right of way in the senate next week as unfinished business. A vote is not expected for several weeks.
Many important amendments are pending which will provoke a bitter discussion. Speeches on the Philippine question will also be made.

ACCUSED OF BEING CANNIBALS

Three Indian Chiefs to Be Tried for Eating Human Flesh.

Vancouver, B. C., March 10.—The steamer Quaguitan has arrived from Northern British Columbia ports with three Indian prisoners in charge of Indian Agent Lipcott. The Indians are to be tried for eating human flesh.
The offenses they are to be tried for were committed at a potlatch some three weeks ago given by Chief Gil-hunk, who won a fortune packing in the Klondike. He called the three tribes together to give that fortune
away in blankets and provisions.
During the potlatch some whisky-soaked old hags got recalling the good old days when cannibals were cannibals, and the ancient death dance was called for. Martyrs were asked to step into the circle. Two young bucks and an Indian maiden answered the call and stood near the fire naked while ten painted savages danced around them, darting at them and biting pieces out of their arms and legs and eating bleeding morsels. When the young savages had lashed themselves into a mad frenzy, corpses were called for, and three Indians who had recently died were placed on the fire,
when the young savages tore the flesh of the corpses from the bones and devoured it half-burned. A missionary complained to the government and the arrests followed.

Occupies Luzon Gold Fields.

Manila, March 10.—A dispatch from Nueva Caeceres, province of North Camarines, dated March 7, states that Gen. Bates' troops have occupied the Daet and Mambulao gold fields without resistance. The first-named district is about fifty miles from Nueva Caeceres, while the latter is on the east coast of the province of Luzon. The situation in the province of South Camarines is rapidly clearing. Vigilant patrols are maintained in the semi-peaceful districts.

Escape of a Prisoner.

Eldora, Ill., March 10.—Sheriff Stratau of Logan county, West Virginia, arrested Jerry Dempsey Thursday on a charge of killing a man in West Virginia six years ago. The sheriff and his prisoner rode into town on the same horse. When the sheriff alighted, Dempsey put spurs to the horse and dashed away in the darkness. The sheriff fired several shots, but Dempsey escaped.

KENTUCKY FEUD IS AT A WHITE HEAT

Excitement Over Arrest of Goebel Murder Case.

Heavy Guard is on Duty About Governor Taylor's Headquarters—Soldiers Much Alarmed Over Rumor
That They Will All Be Arrested—
Evidence That the Fatal Shot Was Fired From the Office of Secretary of State Powers.

Frankfort, Ky., March 10.—[Special Telegram.]—The excitement caused last night by the arrest of N. H. Coulton on the charge of complicity in the Goebel murder and the issuance of warrants for Secretary of State Powers continues today.

Not one of the hundred soldiers on duty at the capital slept during the night. Early this morning the assistant adjutant general wired adjutant general Collier at Louisville as follows: "Come on the first train. Important."

None but employees are allowed to enter the executive building. The soldiers are much alarmed today over rumors that they will be arrested.

Soldiers Prevent Service.

Capitol Policeman Davis, for whom a warrant was also issued, went to the executive building this morning surrounded by soldiers. No attempts were made to arrest him. A heavy guard was on duty around the governor's mansion all night.

The city marshal went to the executive building with a warrant for Powers this morning but was denied admission by the soldiers.

Sheriff Summons a Posse

The sheriff demanded of Collier permission to enter the state house to arrest Powers and Davis. Collier refused, stating that Governor Taylor had issued orders to admit no one into the executive building. The sheriff began this morning in summoning a posse, presumably to assist in the arrest of Powers and Davis. A large number of citizens were soon sworn in.

Arrests Were Expected.

Warrants have also been sworn out against Secretary of State Caleb Powers, his brother, John L. Powers, ex-Secretary Charles Findlay and Captain John W. Davis, policeman on the state capital square. The warrants against them, as in the Coulton arrest, charge them with being accessory to the murder of Goebel.
The police have not yet arrested Caleb Powers and John Davis, who are in the city. The warrants against Findlay and John L. Powers have been mailed to officers in Whitley and Knox counties where they are supposed to be.

The arrests have been looked for daily by those acquainted with the plans being worked in the case.

Watched Since the Shooting.

Several witnesses who testified at the trial of Harland Whittaker on Tuesday swore that the shots at the time of the Goebel assassination were fired from the direction of Powers, office and he and all of the parties for whom the warrants were issued last night have been under surveillance ever since the assassination.

Captain Davis was an appointee of Governor Bradley and was continued under Governor Taylor.

Courts Have No Authority

Louisville, Ky., March 10.—[Special Telegram.]—Judge Field in the court of common pleas this morning handed down a decision in the gubernatorial election cases sustaining the contentions of the democrats by holding that the courts did not have any right to inquire into the acts of the election commissioners and the legislature when they were acting within the scope of their authority.

INSURANCE AGENTS MUST FILE BONDS

ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS EACH REQUIRED.

City Treasurer to Receive the Bonds—Fine of $500 Liable on Failure to Comply—Law Points on the Question Differ Much—Of Special Interest to Local Agents.

Insurance agents in Janesville and other Wisconsin cities who have not filed a bond in compliance with the state law, are in line for promotion "out of business." Insurance commissioner Giljohann is after individual agents as well as corporate companies, and is issuing circular letters to all fire insurance agents in the state, calling attention to repeated violations of the laws and furthermore states that he is determined to see them enforced.

One of the violations is the issuance of policies in such a way as to dodge the state tax on premiums. "It has come to my knowledge," the commissioner says, "that policies are being signed in blank by local agents, and sent to the general agents residing outside of this state, who issue the policies so signed and receive the premium therefor. This is a violation of section 1, chapter 190, which provides that policies may be issued at the companies' department offices, but upon applications procured and submitted to the company by the local agent and that he shall enter such policy, and the payment of the premium upon his records, which I am led to believe, is not done where a policy is signed in blank by an agent. The state is the loser to the extent of the tax on these premiums, and other agents are deprived of their commissions on this business when written outside of the state."

The other law, section 1826, statutes of 1898, which the commissioner says is being violated, provides that any agent who procures any insurance in a city or village having a regularly organized fire department, must file a bond of $1000 with the treasurer of the city or village, and is liable to a fine of $100 for failure to do so. "An agent," says Mr. Giljohann, "who signs a blank policy does not know in what part of the state the risk covered by this policy is placed by the general agent; it may be placed in some city or village that has an organized fire department, wherein the agent has filed no bond, which would make him liable by reason of having counter-signed the policy. It will be my earnest endeavor to put a stop to this violation."

CHURCH LOSES A WORKER

S. M. Smith Was Superintendent of the Sunday School Department

Members of the Presbyterian church now have a double sorrow to contend with. There is little doubt but what Rev. Pence will decide to fill the pulpit of the Fort Street Presbyterian church of Detroit. Samuel M. Smith, who has received the appointment of secretary of the state tax commission and who expects to remove to Madison, was a prominent worker in the Presbyterian church being superintendent of the Sunday school.

COUNTY BOARD PUZZLED

Don't Know What They Will Do With Old Jail and Residence

What to do with the old county jail and residence is a question that the county board of supervisors will soon be obliged to answer. The building committee recently had an offer on the shed in connection with the old jail but this offer was too low in price. Several members think it would be a good policy to rent the brick residence. Others are of the opinion that the jail could easily be turned into a workhouse. The matter will undoubtedly be brought before the board members at their next meeting. The jail and residence are now vacant.

LITTLE AWARDED TEN DOLLAR PRIZE

Short Course Ends at the State University—Janesville Boy Wins High Honors.

At the state university at Madison the short course boys finished their work at the university Thursday and most of them have already gone home. G. D. Little of Janesville, has secured the prize of $10 in gold for the highest standing in veterinary science and E. P. Welborn of Cynthiana, Ind., the second prize of $5 in gold for similar work. These prizes are given by Henry Riedeburg of Stone Bank, and are for second year students.

The outlook for the attendance for next year is very bright as already 125 applications have been accepted from young men who will attend the course beginning next December. About six-fifths of the first year fellows go to accept positions that have been secured for them on dairy or stock farms, through the efforts of the college of agriculture.

LAWRENCE AND RIPON CARRY OFF HONORS

STATE ORATORICAL CONTEST
AT BELOIT LAST NIGHT.

Lawrence First and Ripon Second—Beloit Fails to Get a Place—Much Disappointment in Line City College Town—A Reception to Delegates
Given at Emerson Hall.

Beloit, Wis., March 10—The state oratorical contest of Beloit and Ripon colleges and Lawrence University of Appleton took place in the opera house in this city last night and was an exceedingly interesting and exciting event. The orators who represented their respective schools have been long in preparation for this auspicious event, as the winner has the distinguished honor of representing the state of Wisconsin in the inter-collegiate oratorical contest to be held in Denver before long.

The many successes of Beloit college in oratorical matters had given the college people cause for great interest in the event of last night.

Lawrence Gets First Honors.

There was a lively scene at the close of the speaking, and before the judges had made known their decision, as all of the colleges had delegations that became very much in evidence as they cheered for alma mater. Of the ten states representing the intercollegiate association Wisconsin has well maintained a place in the front rank, and to Beloit had come several first and second places.

The judges awarded the honors to William S. Westcott of Lawrence University, second place to W. R. Davis of Ripon and third place to Claude D. Cole of Lawrence.

Severe Blow to Beloit

The result was a great disappointment to Beloit, who will fail to be represented in this interstate contest, which she had the honor of winning last year. The address of Mr. Westcott, the winner, was a wonderful piece of word painting of Shakespeare's characters of Macbeth and Iago, and it was freely conceded, before the judges announced their decision that he would win.

One thought peculiarly introduced into these orations by three speakers was a justification of Great Britain's attitude in the Transvaal. Each speaker who touched upon this subject gave strong arguments for Britain's warfare, and pointed out the benefits which will accrue from her triumph.

The visiting delegates and judges and all representatives of the interested schools were banqueted at Emerson Hall by the young women of Beloit College after the close of the contest.

THE CURRENT HISTORY CLUB

An Excellent Program at Court Street Church Last Night.

The Current History club met last evening in the lecture room of the Court Street M. E. church. The attendance was even larger than usual. Everybody was pleased with the program and a good social time was enjoyed.

The musical part of the program was exceptionally well rendered. Messrs. Clark & Bryant on their mandolins accompanied by the guitar played excellently. Miss Brace accompanied by Miss Woodbury on the violin and Miss Stevens on the piano sang with charming effect. Mr. Jabez Isaacs read a very good article on the Philippine question.

Mrs. Brownell read an excellent paper on the authors whose names stand just now at the front. Miss Reva Dewey read a paper on the new gold discoveries at Cape Nome in the United States possessions in Alaska. Miss Weaver read a paper which forever settled the nineteenth-twentieth century question. This paper was well received.

Miss Myrtle Dewey was the leader for the evening. The change to the lecture room of the church was timely. No private house could have accommodated the gathering of last evening.

Mr. Payne's personal integrity has never been questioned. For twenty years he has been one of the few Wisconsin men of national scope of acquaintance and influence. His associates and national authorities evince no disposition to substitute any other representative of Wisconsin at this time when Mr. Payne is doing the best political work of his life and is in a position to most effectively represent the state in the national councils. There is no sense in making a change until some one has grown from any cause that may be properly charged to him. His reelection to the national committee is assured.

The Green Bay Gazette makes this point:

The Janesville Gazette tells the truth, as it always does, when it says "the factional troubles in the republican party appear to be a thing of the past. It is well that this is true, and, to cite John A. Dix's famous saying to suit the circumstances, "If any man attempts to put up a factional flag, shoot him on the spot." All that is needed is to select Senator Stebbins as governor and no such thing as faction will be recognized within the ranks of the dominant political party of Wisconsin.

It is a good thing that the city's side walk on the Main street side of the court house park is waterproof. Otherwise it would be likely to be ruined by the two or three inches of water that has stood on it for some days past.

Ex Consul Macrum will doubtless be greatly surprised to learn that Adolbert

Hay, United States Consul at Pretoria, cabled that he is having no trouble in the full exercise of his functions, and is on an excellent footing with Boer officials, who give him any information desired as to the condition of the British soldier prisoners at Pretoria.

THE FINANCIAL BILL.

Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin—The financial measure, as agreed to in a joint conference, passed the senate yesterday by the strong vote of 44 to 26, or 18 majority, in a membership of 90. It is a result fortunate for the country and for the people, as it establishes the gold standard in the United States. Among the gratifying incidents is the fact that Bard and Perkins, the two California senators, voted for the gold standard and against the free coinage of silver. We believe that this is the first occasion on which California has been united against the free silver ratio of 16 to 1. It is an omen of good, because the Rocky Mountain States and the Pacific states have been so infected with the free silver delusion, that too many of their people have abandoned the honest doctrines of Jefferson and Jackson on the currency. The people must not forget that William E. Chandler of New Hampshire was the only republican who deserted and voted with the democrats and the free silver crowd. He is the only apostate from the republican party, and the more contemptible an ingrate he is because the honest and sturdy voters of New Hampshire, at least five to one, are against the free silver swindle which Chandler has been sustaining by his vote in the senate. Fortunately, Lindsay of Kentucky, a gold standard democrat, counterbalanced the desertion of Chandler.

Samuel M. Smith will make a thoroughly efficient secretary to the State Tax Commission, and the commission is to be congratulated on securing so good a man for the place. Mr. Smith is especially qualified for the work he will have to do, and will certainly make an enviable record.

The pension bureau, according to dispatches, estimates that there are 1,032, 418 surviving soldiers of the civil war, excluding deserters. About 312,000 of these are unpensioned. The average age of the survivors is 60 years.

All caucuses have to be kept open at least one hour in the future, thus doing away with the first-come-first-served rule. This one feature is worth all the extra work made necessary by the change.

Ex-Senator Lee Mantell of Montana, who bolted the republican ticket because of the silver issue, has returned to the republican fold, saying that Bryanism was a mighty slim diet for a patriotic American citizen.

It is announced that a process has been discovered for the manufacture of artificial ice. If this be the fact, perhaps we can all cut some with a smaller expenditure of time and money.

Admiral Dewey favors the maintenance of a strong naval force in the Orient, and it would appear that he knows what he is talking about.

That Refused License.

Columbus, Ohio, March 10.—Secretary of State Keating today informed the American Clay Manufacturing company, commonly known as the tile sewer pipe trust, that their articles of incorporation were in violation of the Ohio anti-trust law, and refused to issue them a certificate to do business in Ohio until they had secured an opinion from the attorney general.

Spanish Captives Released.

Washington, March 10.—Gen. Otis cabled the war department: "A Spanish officer, sixty enlisted men and two civil officials, who had been prisoners in the rebels' hands, were received today from Tayabas."

San Francisco Public Over.

San Francisco, Cal., March 10.—As the monkeys, guinea pigs and rats which were inoculated with bacillus from the dead Chinaman's glands were in excellent health today and showing no signs of having bubonic plague, the quarantine on Chinatown has been lifted.

Gillmore in San Francisco.

San Francisco, Cal., March 10.—Lieutenant Commander J. C. Gillmore and four of the men who suffered eight months' captivity with him arrived on the steamer Solace.

WOMAN'S MISTAKE.

It is a well-known fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured more women than any other remedy. It therefore must be the best possible medicine for female ills.

But some women make the mistake of thinking that they will try something else simply because it is new. That mistake is often a fatal one—fatal to the health and happiness of the experimenter.

Is it not foolish to risk the possible results of such experiments? Is it not better to depend upon a medicine which has been tried successfully for thirty years, and which has never been found wanting?

Do not therefore let any one persuade you to try something which they say is just as good. It cannot be just as good. Mrs. Pinkham's Compound is the best, and there can be only one best. This is not a mere assertion, but is a positive fact, admitted by hundreds of regular physicians.

Rely on your own common sense, and Mrs. Pinkham's life-long experience, and you will make no mistake. Don't experiment with your health, but take a medicine that you know is good, and is backed by such letters as these to Mrs. Pinkham:

Suppressed and Painful Periods Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
"I was thin, sallow and nervous. I had not had my menses for over a year and a half. Doctored with several physicians in town and one specialist, but did not get any better. I finally decided to try your medicine, and wrote to you. After I had taken three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and three of Blood Purifier, my menses returned, and I feel as well and strong as I ever did, and am gaining flesh."—Miss Lena Gaines, Visalia, Tulare Co., Cal.

"After following the directions given in your kind letter for the treatment of leucorrhoea, I can say that I have been entirely cured by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies, and will gladly recommend them to my friends."—Miss A. B. Davis, Binghamton, N. Y.

A Grateful Woman Recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to Every Wife and Mother.
"I have taken eight bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with most gratifying results. I had been married four years and had two children. I was all run down, had fulling of womb with all its distressing symptoms. I had doctored with a good physician, but I derived very little good from his treatment. After taking a few bottles of your medicine, I was able to do my work and nurse my seven-months-old babe. I recommend your medicine to every wife and mother. Had I time, I could write much more in its praise. I bid you God's speed in your good work."—Mrs. L. A. Morris, Welaika, Putnam Co., Fla.

The Medicine that holds the record for the largest number of Cures is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Good Farm Homes Cheap

The Chicago & Northwestern Railway Company owns 550,000 acres of hard wood timber land in Northern Wisconsin, which lands are now being offered to actual settlers at low prices. The lands are well located, afford railway, postal, church and school advantages. These lands should not be confounded with the pine stumpage lands now offered in this market. Land that grows pine is invariably sandy.

The C. & N. W. Tracts grow hard wood and cannot be excelled by "openings" in the country.

The logs, posts and poles find ready sale at nearby saw mills, and when the land is once cleared excellent agricultural soil is the result.

Excursions will be run to these lands on Tuesday of each week, round trip tickets being sold at... $6.71

They are for sale at my office. I should be glad to furnish printed matter and other information to all interested.

ALL THE NEWS—12 CENTS PER WEEK.

The feature of the Paris exposition, not only to people of the United States, but to folks from all the rest of the world who happen to be there, will be the American exhibit.

This is saying a good deal when you remember the circumstances. Just across the way from Paris lie the great industries of England, the million stacked workshops of Germany are at her northern elbow and the other great nations are near neighbors, while here we are clear across the ocean.

But the American manufacturer, who is learning how to find his market at the ends of the earth, cares nothing for a few thousand miles of distance. In the big French show he sees a chance to convince all Europe that he can make his particular line of goods cheaper and better than they can be made anywhere, elsewhere on the globe. So he picks out his finest samples, packs big cases full of attractive trade curios and hustles across the sea just as readily as if the exposition booths were around the corner from his factory office.

When the flags go up on the new Alexandrine bridge and the many entrance gates of the exposition are opened on April 15, there will be no less than 7,000 American exhibits to be seen within the grounds. Save for France alone, this will be the largest showing by any country. Germany comes second.

And all this, you must remember, in spite of the fact that at the close of the Spanish-American war, when the French had proved themselves such strong Spanish sympathizers, there was talk of Uncle Sam's boycotting the exposition altogether. But we forgot an injury quickly; at least, we overlooked it when business demands.

Much of the success of the American exhibit is due to the enthusiastic work of our exposition commissioner, Mr. Ferdinand W. Peck. Through his untiring efforts of months ago the space allotted to the United States was largely increased. Since then he has done good work in interesting exhibitors.

The liberality with which the federal and state governments have made appropriations has also aided. Perhaps the exposition buildings of other countries may excel ours in some respects, but every loyal American will agree that the fine structure over which the big eagle spreads his wings along the banks of the Seine does credit to his country, even when comparisons are made. It is certainly a beautiful building.

Besides the main structure, which is shown in the accompanying illustration, there are four annex buildings, work on which has recently been finished. They will be devoted to agriculture, liberal arts, marine and forestry.

And what things shall we see in these buildings of ours? Oh, many, many things of American make of which you, living right here where they are produced, never dreamed. Of the number of exhibitors who have already taken space 1,110 represent the purely commercial branches, while the remaining exhibits are divided among such classifications as agriculture, mines, literature, which includes the American periodicals, science and the fine arts; religious, charitable and other associations; and education, which will include the exhibits of the schools, colleges, etc.

Prosaic as such a description may seem the actual exhibits will be far from uninteresting. They will include almost everything in the range of human endeavor so artistically arranged as to attract the immediate attention of even such a blasé individual as the average Frenchman. When he has walked through the American exhibit, he will have seen everything that a human being could possibly require in his passage from the cradle to the grave.

There will be the food to feed him, the beverages to satisfy his thirst. He will see the clothing necessary for every stage of life and for every degree of temperature from the polar circle to the equator. If he desires amusement, education or opportunities for investment, he need go no farther—in fact, he may buy everything from a stick of candy or a plug of tobacco to a burial casket or a thousand horsepower motor, a set of false teeth or an incubator, and if he does not see at the first glance the article that he requires it will only be necessary for him to ask for it.

Numerically the largest exhibits will be those of the manufacturers of wines and other liquors. For all that France has held one of the highest positions among the makers of wines, and it has only been within the past few years that any one of good taste has been willing to drink American made champagne and other famous beverages.

One of the features of the drink exhibit will be the American soda fountain, while nearly every state in the Union will furnish its exhibits of hard and soft cider. In fact, it looks as if there was an organized effort being made to interest foreigners in this distinctly American beverage.

The American health food exhibit will be another prominent feature of the exposition. Already every manufacturer of condensed or otherwise prepared milks has announced his desire for space, and there will be no less than 50 indispensable breakfast foods on exhibit.

The merchant marine exhibit of course will not be a very extensive one, because we have not a very extensive merchant marine, but one thing we are making a great feature of is our yacht exhibit. Models of all the cup defenders and all our other principal yachts will be shown.

We will have, besides, models of our other characteristic marine work, such as our Long Island sound boats, our ferryboats, our floats for carrying railroad trains, our ice breakers, our cable boats for buying Atlantic cables and repairing them, etc. The largest American exhibit in this line will be that of the American line. It will be models of all their magnificent American built steamships.

The railroad exhibit will include automobiles, bicycles and things of such nature. There was not room enough in the American building to show the most important varieties of machinery actually working, so the machinists have got together and built, at their own expense, a complete American machine shop, which will have perhaps more influence on foreign trade than any other part of our exhibit, because American machinery has been coming into use extensively in Europe of late.

There are now very large plans for the erection of great railroad and other important machine shops over there by Europeans, which have been postponed in their execution until after the exposition in order that they may study the most improved appliances in the American exhibit; especially American tools and machinery. In our railroad department, there will be fine good representative American locomotives. Some of them may be jacked up on under wheels as they were at the Chicago exposition, but most of them will be lifted clear of the track, and then operated by compressed air to show their motion.

No less than 17 different varieties of the typewriter will be shown; there will be almost no limit to the number and varieties of bicycles exhibited, and there will be enough automobiles to prove that France is not the only country in which such modern vehicles can be made and made well.

To describe all the novelties that America will show the foreign visitors to the great fair, however, is quite impossible, for the section will include almost everything from a reproduction of a Vermont granite quarry to a display of patent medicines.

YES OR NO?

Janesville People are Respectfully Asked to Answer These Questions.

Is there anything in the evidence of one's senses?

Is there anything in the testimony of one's friends?

Can reliance be placed upon statements from people we know?

Are the opinions of local citizens of any greater moment than those of strangers?

Would you sooner believe people living in some far away place than citizens of your own city?

We think not! For home proof can easily be investigated.

Mr. John Stetson, of Hotel Myers, day clerk, says: "A physician pronounced my trouble kidney complaint, the severe pain across the small of my back is any indication of the said complaint, I guess I had it. For two years I suffered with attacks, sometimes violent, sometimes a dull, grinding ache, which robbed me of considerable energy. I used in addition to doctor's prescriptions, several preparations said to be sure cures for kidney complaint, but up until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the People's Drug Co.'s drug store, I received little if any permanent relief. I took a thorough course of treatment prescribed by Doan's Kidney Pills and it cured me. Up to date I have not noticed any recurrence of my old trouble."

THE BEST SPARE ROOM.

SOME THINGS WHICH SHOULD BE IN IT AND SOME THINGS WHICH SHOULD NOT.

HOW TO MAKE IT COMFORTABLE.

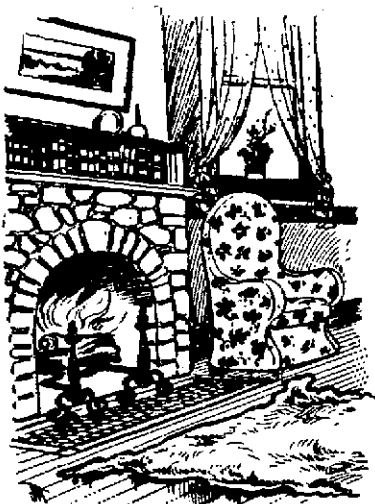

BY LUCY LAWN.

I remember when a youngster of the happy hours spent when to visit Uncle Hiram in the country off I went. And the pleasant recollection still in memory has a charm. Of my boyish romps and rambles round the dear old fashioned farm. But at night all joyous feelings from my youth-fall hushen creep. For I knew they'd surely put me where the company always slept. And my spirit sank within me as upon it fell the gloom. And the vast and lonely grandeur of the best spare room.

—Joe Lincoln.

There is scarcely an out of town house where I am acquainted that does not acknowledge one of those elaborately gilded rooms known as the guest chamber. If it were labeled "a cage of misery," the true condition of things would confront the unoffending guest at the threshold and perhaps embolden her to ask for the few necessary arrangements that would add so much to her few holidays.

I do not say this in disparagement, but I state it as a simple truth. If any one of my fair friends doubts me, let her pack a grip with the few things she would consider essential for a day's trip to an acquaintance and cross her own hall into that sacred guest chamber that has so long been the delight of her heart and, leaving her own cozy room behind, exile herself for 24 hours to those domains of her cherished friends. That is the only way to find out just what your self-sacrificing friends suffer when they accept your hospitality.

If you should chance to decide on this trip some evening when you are thoroughly tired out after a day's shopping, you will probably appreciate the situation by lying awake half the night, rising stiff and tired in the morning, turning over your toilet for an hour and then joining your bright, well-rested family at breakfast. If you are not a sadder and a wiser woman for this experience, then you are the exception that proves the rule and are to be congratulated.

To begin with, it is the duty of every hostess to see to it that the bed in the guest chamber is a couch of ease. There are many details that are involved in that word "ease." It necessitates fresh sheets, a good mattress and a spring that does not groan with every turning of the weary sleeper.

The good old fashioned way of airing the room regularly and putting on well aired fresh linen the day the guest arrives is the only rule for comfort and health. Sheets get damp and chilled by lying in folds for weeks before using, and they must be aired to rid them of that musty odor. Even in summer an extra pair of blankets should lie across the foot of the bed. A couple of extra pillows, with at least one hard stuffed and one quite soft, among them. Everybody has little notions about the size and thickness of pillows, and yet an unselfish guest might hesitate to ask for just what she wants.

Air the room with the same regularity that you do your own, and it is possible to allow the windows to remain open all day long through the whole season. Let the sun enter freely. Nothing is more sure to cause a restless night than the depressing atmosphere due to closed blinds and drawn shades.

Do not fill the water pitchers and jugs until an hour before the guest is expected. How often has the weary traveler been shut into that cage and been confronted by stale water that smells as though it had stood two weeks, with an attractive scum a half inch thick floating on the top, damp towels that are simply musty, perhaps no soap and where it is utterly impossible to ring for a drop of hot water.

Have you never been the timid individual shown into such a room, and have you never been driven to desperate means just because such necessities were improperly prepared or even lacking?

Unless your guest chamber communicates with the bathroom see to it that there are plenty of fresh towels, a fresh cake of soap and a jug of hot water. A bell that connects with the servants' quarters is indispensable. Strain a point if you must, but get one by hook or crook and explain to your visitor its working. Do not fail to provide vide plenty of rack space for towels, sponges and brushes.

Do not load the dressing table with toilet articles. If they are silver trilles, they are usually the cast offs from your own table and can be of no service to your friend's toilet. Every woman carries her own precious toilet articles. The women who don't usually require very few.

If you can, place a good sized mirror, a clean comb and brush, a tray of mixed pins and some new hairpins upon a separate shelf next to the dresser, but leave its own top clear for the guest's own pins, brushes, combs, etc.

Have a waste basket handy where a woman can throw her odds and ends and a man his shaving papers. A simple, small table beside the bed is an untold convenience for holding a pitcher of drinking water, a candle and the various things nervous people like to have within reach during the night.

Have a care in arranging the furniture. Place the dresser where a good light will fall day and night upon the individual before it and not upon the mirror itself. Have at least one easy chair and two others of the bedroom type.

Place the little desk near the window and have a low chair before it. The fittings of the desk should be provided by the hostess, but plenty of room should be allowed for a guest's own materials should she desire to use them.

This room should have a lounge at the foot of the bed and a light coverlet for the same. A shoe box or bag in the closet and a half dozen wire coat racks are necessary.

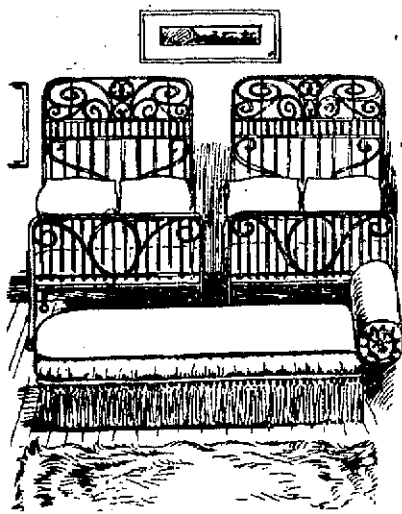

If the blinds on the window are green, see that they are in working order; if not, then inform your guest that the green shades are perfectly opaque. Do not imagine that because you can sleep with the bright sunlight pouring in your face everybody else can do so too.

As you are a merciful woman please do not fill your guest chamber with flowers. They not only keep some people awake, but they often give sensitive people severe colds more trying than those taken from changes in the weather.

A well fitted spare room always contains two single beds in place of the double couch. No hostess should expect two women who are not related to sleep together, or two men, even if they are brothers, to sleep together. Health and comfort demand separate beds, and no person should invite two people to remain overnight if they must share the same mattress.

If there are any special noises occasioned by the settling of your new house or the creaking of trees in the breezes without, inform your guest of them. Strange sounds frequently keep nervous people awake all night when a word from the hostess would have dispelled all fear.

It is such a small courtesy to offer to leave your own chamber door open.

"HAVE TWO SINGLE BEDS."

and yet it would mean a restful night to some people and would bring you many grateful thoughts from appreciative friends.

Do not permit your vigorous children to romp under the windows of your bachelor friend early in the morning. He loves the little ones just as much as you do, but he is also very fond of those last few minutes' sleep. He will proclaim your perfections as hostess and mistress to all your mutual friends if you will only see to it that he is not rudely awakened from his peaceful slumbers.

BOSTWICK FAMILY IN A COMMOTION

Tin Box with Cash and Papers Valued at $10,000 Stolen.

WAS FOUND IN A VAULT

Miss Jennie Hemstock, the Hired Girl, Confessed to the Plunder.

Portion of the Money Was Found Sewed Up in Her Dress—Valuable Papers and Bank Books Badly
Mutilated, as if the Thief Had Tried To Destroy Them—The Girl Went Into Hysterics When Confronted with the Evidence of the Crime—
Sent Up For Three Months.

Miss Jennie Hemstock, a domestic employed in the private family of J. M.
Bostwick, 307 Court street, was placed in jail on the charge of having stolen a tin box containing cash and valuable papers to the estimated value of $10,000.

The tin box and the papers were found by the police in the bottom of a vault in the rear of the Bostwick residence. A portion of the money was found sewed on the dress that Miss Hemstock wore when placed under arrest yesterday afternoon.

Miss Hemstock, it is alleged, has made a full confession to the police admitting her guilt.

Mrs. Bostwick's Tin Box

For some time past Mrs. Bostwick has kept secreted in her bed room closet a tin box. In this box she kept some money together with certain bonds and mortgages. It is estimated that their valuation was about $10,000.

Four months ago there arrived in Janesville two girls from Racine county.
One of these girls was Miss Hemstock.
They were strangers here and were looking for work. They went to board with Mrs. Ryan who runs a boarding house at the corner of Court and Bluff streets.
After remaining here a short time they left.

Then they went to housekeeping on South Franklin street. When they departed from Mrs. Ryan's boarding house they left behind an unpaid board bill.
When Chief Hogan spoke to them about this unpaid board bill they both promised to secure work and settle the bill as soon as possible. Then they both went to work in the Bostwick family.

Discovered the Hiding Place

This was October last. All went well till one day Mrs. Bostwick discovered that someone had been tampering with the tin box she had so carefully secreted
in an out-of-the-way place in the closet of her bedroom. Someone had discovered its hiding place.

They had pried open one end of it and had evidently carefully examined its contents. Bonds and mortgages in the box, as well as bank books the prowlers had left behind. A few dollars in bills were taken.

Miss Hemstock was then suspected.
But to prove that she was the guilty person was another question.

Yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Bostwick went to her bed room closet she was horrified to find that some one had stolen the tin box and its valuable contents. A telephone message to the dry goods store soon brought Mr. Bostwick home. Then a message was sent to Chief of Police John W. Hogan.

Chief Hogan Takes a Hand.

At four o'clock Chief Hogan arrived at the Bostwick residence. After a short investigation Chief Hogan was of the opinion that one of the two domestics employed in the Bostwick home knew something about the robbery. Miss Hemstock was not at home. She was down town but was expected home at any time. The other girl was home.
After being closely questioned Chief Hogan was soon convinced that this girl knew nothing about the theft.

While search was being made for the missing box and contents Miss Hem-stock appeared on the scene. Without any ceremony Chief Hogan there and then accused her of knowing more than she was willing to tell.

When openly accused of being the thief the poor girl went fairly wild. She cried and sobbed as if her heart would break. When Chief Hogan was trying to make her confess searchers came forth with the announcement that they had made the discovery of the box and contents. And sure enough they had.

Badly Battered Box Found.

In the bottom of a vault in the rear of the Bostwick residence the badly battered tin box was found. Near it lay the valuable papers and bank books.
Some of the papers were badly mutilated as if the thief tried to tear them up.

When confronted last night with this evidence Miss Hemstock fairly went into hysterics. Then she was taken to the new county jail and placed in a cell.
While on her way to jail Miss Hemstock

made a full confession to Chief Hogan.

After being placed in a cell she was asked what she had done with what money she had stolen. Miss Hemstock asked the officers to leave her cell and she would produce a portion of the money. She was left alone and a call soon brought the officers.

The fair prisoner then produced $17 in cash which she had sewed in her dress.

Miss Hemstock is of Welsh nationality, and is what one would call handsome. She is about twenty-two years of age. She has a sister residing in Eau Claire. Her parents reside near Sparta but their names she refused to disclose.

Three Months in Jail

At 11 o'clock this morning Miss Hem-stock was brought into the municipal court. She was accompanied by Chief Hogan. The fair prisoner took a seat within three feet of the bar of justice and there awaited her fate. She looked sad but never shed a tear during the time she was in court. She looked neat in a well fitting dress of gray, and wore a brown jacket and a dark fur col-larette. A stylish red hat formed her headgear. But six spectators were on hand. On account of the illness of Judge Charles L. Fifield, Justice L. F.
Patton presided. District Attorney
Jackson appeared on behalf of the state.

The court informed Miss Hemstock that she was accused of committing a misdemeanor by stealing $19 in money and the goods and chattels of Mrs. E.
G. C. Bostwick. Nothing was said in the complaint of the stolen bonds and mortgages. When asked if she would plead guilty or not guilty Miss Hem-stock, in a low tone of voice said
"guilty." Then the court questioned her. These questions the prisoner answered but not once did she volunteer any information. She stated that she was eighteen years of age and that her parents resided at Sparta.

Justice Patton then said: "I find you guilty of the offence charged in the complaint and sentence you to pay a fine of $50 and costs or a total of $53.53
and until the same is paid you shall be confined in the common jail of Rock county for a term not to exceed three months."

When sentence was passed Clerk A.
E. Tanberg asked Miss Hemstock if she intended paying the fine. She replied no. Then she was taken to jail and is now serving out her sentence.

Henry A. Patterson was born in the town of Lindley, New York, on June 8, 1829. In 1855 he came west, settling in Janesville, where he entered the practice of law, forming a partnership with David Noggle and Charles Williams.
Mr. Patterson has served Rock county as justice of the peace, district attorney, and judge of the municipal court. He was also elected to the legislature. In 1875 he was appointed postmaster by President Grant, and was reappointed by President Hayes, and served eight years.

WARM COCK FIGHT HELD LAST EVENING

Battle Was Fought Off Within One Block of Rock County's New $25,000 Bastille.

Within one block of the new Rock county jail, and in the very heart of the business section of the city, a bloody cocking main was pulled off last evening. The birds used were the best to be found in this part of the country and were all owned by local parties.

The battle took place in a basement of a building and was witnessed by many of the local sports. Considerable cash changed hands and some of the sports lost much money. The birds were all fighters from start to finish and those present had no fault to find for the lack of excitement.

The pit was so constructed that all present could well view the several events. The sport lasted until late. No arrests have as yet been made nor are there likely to be any.

LONDON TALKS OF PEACE.

Rumors That the Boers Are Ready to End the War.

DOUBTED IN MANY QUARTERS.

English Correspondents Confident the Republics Are Willing to Bring the Struggle to a Close—Salisbury Will Propose Hard Conditions.

London, March 10.—While the official and semi-official telegrams from Pretoria speak emphatically of the stiffening of the Boer resistance in face of reverses and the prevalence of a spirit of desperate resolve, several English correspondents continue to declare that not only are the Free State Boers demoralized and anxious for peace, but the Transvaalers are wavering and seeking a settlement by which they may escape a prolongation of the exhausting struggle.

President Kruger and President Steyn are credited with approaching the British government with a proposal of the terms on which they are prepared to negotiate for peace. The Daily Mail's Pretoria correspondent, in a dispatch dated March 8, and sent by way of Lourenco Marques, the message being prefaced by the words, "Censored by the Boer government," says:

"Conversations I have had with the highest state officers show that the Boers consider that the time has now arrived for clearing up the misunderstandings and misrepresentations from which they believe the war emanated. They deny the existence of any Dutch conspiracy. They assert that they occupied extra-territorial positions merely on strategic grounds, while the absence of the colonial Dutch from participation in the hostilities demonstrates their unshaken loyalty."

"If England is waging a war of conquest the republics will fight to a finish; otherwise they believe that a plain statement of the British intentions will reveal a basis for negotiations, now that England's prestige is repaired."

"Presidents Kruger and Steyn conferred at Bloemfontein Monday on the incorporation of the above representations in a telegram to Lord Salisbury. The preservation of the independence of the two republics is a sine qua non."

The vast bulk of opinion in Great Britain continues to be wholly opposed to peace on any terms except the unconditional surrender of the two republics, and that is the same view that is held by the government. Though this fact hardly needs assertion it is shown in the following note, which is prominently printed this morning in the Standard, a ministerial organ:

"We have reason to believe that an authoritative announcement will shortly be made by her majesty's government reaffirming the impossibility of conceding any terms of peace to the two South African republics which would involve the perpetuation of the political and military independence that has led to the present costly and sanguinary conflict."

Rumors have been current in the lobbies of parliament for two days that the republics have made representations looking to peace, but that these are inadmissible.

One story that is supposed to have reached Berlin from Johannesburg declares that differences between Boer leaders have culminated in Gen. Joubert resigning his command, and in a decision by President Kruger to assume the active leadership of the burgher forces in the field. All this comes from interested sources which obviously discount it, but it is the feature in a section of today's London newspapers.

Meanwhile nothing of importance has been received concerning the military movements in South Africa. It is pretty clear that Gen. Roberts' operations on March 7 failed in their main object through the skillful rapidity of the Boer retreat.

The latest reference to the rebellion in the Carnarvon district is a report of the arrival at Carnarvon on March 5 of the advance guard of a British force, consisting of the New Zealand mounted troops, commanded by Major Craček.

Heavy artillery firing was reported from the direction of Yonburg, whither the South Australian squadron is supposed to have gone. The insurgents seem to be gaining strength in other places besides Prieska.

Nothing has been received to relieve the popular anxiety regarding Mafeking.

Kruger Expresses Disappointment.

Cape Town, March 10.—A dispatch from Poplar Grove of yesterday's date says: "President Kruger was at Bloemfontein at noon yesterday and it is reported that he pressed the engagement and urged the burghers to make a courageous defense of their country. Afterward he expressed bitter disappointment at the feeble resistance that had been offered to the British. The Boers retreated to Abraham's kraal last night, where a strong commando of Bloemfontein police interrupted their flight. The Boers placed two guns in position, but the place is impossible to defend, and a flasco similar to that at Paardeberg is anticipated."

All May Wear the Shamrock.
London, March 10.—In the house of commons Mr. Joseph Powell Williams, financial secretary to the war office, stated that all Irish soldiers, whether in or out of Irish regiments, would be allowed to wear the shamrock on St. Patrick's day. The Rt. Hon. George J.

Goschen, first lord of the admiralty, intimated that a similar privilege would be accorded the Irish sailors.

Says Joubert Will End War.
Cincinnati, Ohio, March 10.—A. A. Swingley, of Sheriff & Swingley, mining engineers of Johannesburg, South Africa, is in Cincinnati. He has purchased a 1,500 horse-power air compressor from the Lane & Bodley Co., to be used in diamond mining. The machinery is to be delivered in June, when, he says, the war will be over.

Joubert Fortifying at Biggarsberg.
Pretoria, March 7, via Lourenco Marques, March 8.—Commandant-General Joubert has been actively organizing a defensive line in the Biggarsberg range. The Boer commander at Van Reenen's pass reports that there has been no advance of the British since the republican forces retreated from the vicinity of Ladysmith.

Warren to Reinforce Roberts.
Durban, March 10.—It is understood that Sir Charles Warren's fifth division of Gen. Buller's forces is to be sent to the Orange Free States to re-enforce the men under Field Marshal Lord Roberts. This would seem to indicate that no attempt will be made by Gen. Buller to force his way through the Drakenberg passes.

Rhodes Stays in Africa.
Cape Town, March 10.—Cecil Rhodes has postponed his departure for England until March 14.

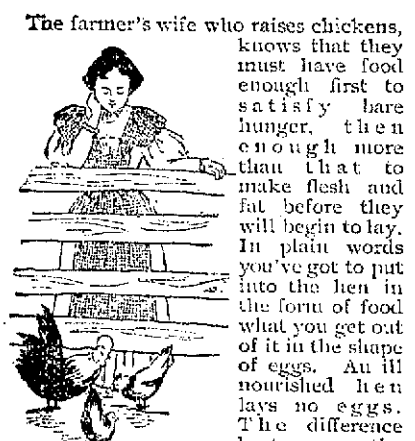

Federal Officials in a Duel.
Nevada, Mo., March 10.—United States Commissioner Douglass Wight and Horace H. Blanton, an attorney of this city, fought a street duel with pistols this afternoon. Wight received a scalp wound and Blanton was shot in the abdomen. The trouble arose over the approaching mayoralty election.

Repealing Boer American Meats.
Berlin, March 10.—The reichstag, by a vote of 169 to 99, passed on its second reading the committee's proposals prohibiting the importation of foreign meats. Both the conservative parties and a majority of the Centrists and National Liberals supported prohibition.

Author's Estates Proved.
London, March 10.—The returns filed at the probate office show that the estate of R. D. Blackmore, the author, who died recently, is valued at £216,963. The value of the estate of Canon T. Wells, the hymn writer, is placed at £85,289.

Dye Makes His Shortage Good.
Lebanon, Ind., March 10.—Experts found ex-Recorder J. M. Dye to be $2,491 short in his office accounts. The county commissioners demanded and received a settlement. Dye was elected by the republicans four years ago.

Cheate Starts on Vacation.
London, March 10.—Joseph Cheate, the American ambassador, has left London for the Riviera.

The farmer's wife who raises chickens, knows that they must have food enough first to satisfy bare hunger, then enough more than that to make flesh and fat before they will begin to lay. In plain words you've got to put into the hen in the form of food what you get out of it in the shape of eggs. An ill nourished hen lays no eggs. The difference between the farmer's wife and her chickens is that she fancies she can take out of herself in daily cares and toils what she does not put back in the form of nourishment for nerve and body. But she can't. Sooner or later the woman who tries it breaks down. The warning signs of physical breakdown are, among others, headache, weak stomach, flatulence, pain in side or back, difficult breathing, palpitation of the heart. These are only some of the indications of a derangement of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. The one sure remedy for this condition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which strengthens the stomach, purifies the blood and nourishes and invigorates the nerves.

Mrs. Martha E. Barham, of Newville, Prince George Co., Va., writes: "I commenced to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in June, 1897, also his 'Favorite Prescription,' and I cannot express the benefit I have received from these medicines. I was suffering with what the doctors called chronic indigestion, torpid liver and vertigo. The doctor did not do me any good. My symptoms were giddiness in head, pain in chest and an uneasy feeling all over. I also suffered with female weakness. I was all run-down and could not do any work at all without suffering from nervous attacks, so I wrote to you for advice. You advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Favorite Prescription.' When I commenced to use the medicines I weighed only 112 pounds, now I weigh 130 pounds. I thank God and Dr. R. V. Pierce for my recovery."

Stomach Troubles In Spring

Are THAT BILIOUS FEELING, bad taste in the mouth, dull headache, sleeplessness, poor appetite.

No matter how careful you are about eating, everything you take into your stomach turns sour, causes distress, pains and unpleasant gases. In this condition it is only a question of time when you will have a well developed case of dyspepsia, or possibly bilious fever.

Don't you understand what these symptoms—these signals of distress—mean?

They are the cries of the stomach for help! It is being overworked. It needs the peculiar tonic qualities and digestive strength to be found only in Hood's Sarsaparilla. We have combined in this medicine the best stomach remedies known to the medical profession, and thousands of grateful letters telling its cures prove it to be the greatest medicine for all stomach troubles ever yet discovered. Try it this Spring.

Mrs. Shelly, who writes the following letter, is the wife of Rev. D. H. Shelly, for forty years in the ministry of the United Brethren. By her kindly nature and gentle disposition she has won hundreds of friends, who rejoice in her restoration to health:

"I suffered for years with sour stomach, sometimes called water brash. I could not drink either cold or warm water because it would sour on my stomach. I was bloated and weighed over 200 pounds. My blood did not circulate properly, and if others around me were warm I seemed to be freezing. I had numbness in my right side and arms. The physician advised a thorough course of treatment with a blood medicine in the spring, as at that time my body was covered with scales caused by an affliction of dry-czema. Having commenced treatment with Hood's Sarsaparilla I continued taking the second bottle, after which I could sleep well. My digestion began to improve and I fell away in weight. I have little or no trouble from eczema now and my weight is 180 pounds, about normal. My food digests properly and I am not troubled with numbness. I am also able to drink cold water, a privilege which people do not fully appreciate until they are deprived of it. I think a great deal of Hood's Sarsaparilla and it certainly has effected very remarkable results." Mrs. D. H. Shelly, 836 Yocum Street, Tonia, Mich.

Every druggist sells Hood's Sarsaparilla. But be sure you get Hood's, and not a substitute. Hood's is Peculiar to Itself.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills For Pale People Save Many Lives

Lives are saved by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

Mr. G. H. Snyder, 1310 Louisiana St., Lawrence, Kansas, tells how he was cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. He says: "I am now seventy years of age. About three years ago I experienced a coldness or numbness in the feet, then creeping up my legs until it reached my body. I grew very thin in flesh, my appetite was very poor and I did not relish my food. At last I became so bad I was unable to move about. I consulted several distinguished physicians, one telling me that I had locomotor ataxia, another that I had creeping paralysis. I took their medicines but they did me no good and I continued to grow worse."

"One day nearly a year ago, a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I immediately commenced their use, throwing all other medicines away. Before I had finished my first box I found that they were benefitting me. I used twelve boxes in all and was perfectly cured. Although it is over six months since I used my last pill there has been no recurrence of the disease. My appetite is now good and my general health is better than it has been for many years."

To save a life when medical science fails is a miracle. To restore good health when hope has been abandoned is a miracle. To conquer disease long supposed incurable is a miracle. All this, and more, is accomplished by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. If everybody understood the potent power of this wonderful remedy, much needless suffering would be prevented, many lives would be saved.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by all druggists. Prepared only by Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

CHANGE IN TARIFF BILL.

Steering Committee Will Abolish Duty on Puerto Rican Imports.

RESULT OF CONFERENCES.

It is Believed the Suggested Amendment Will Be Adopted, Though the Haters in Free Trade in the House Will Oppose It Strenuously.

Washington, March 10.—The senate steering committee, representing the republican majority of that body, has practically determined, after frequent conferences, to recommend an amendment to the Foraker bill, which will result in a radical reduction of the 15 per cent rate as fixed by the house and reported by the senate committee on Puerto Rican affairs in the bill now pending. Since the discussion of the Foraker bill at the meeting of the steering committee on Wednesday, and the conference of Senators Aldrich, Spooner and Hanna with the president that evening, a number of suggestions have been made by senators with a view to make the measure less obnoxious to the majority.

The plan most favored by the leaders as outlined by a member of the committee is to strike out the clause of the bill which levies a duty of 15 per cent of the Dingley rates on imports into Puerto Rico from the United States and provide for their free entry at ports of the island, and to reduce to less than 15 per cent the duty to be collected at United States ports upon Puerto Rican products.

The effect of these amendments will be to take off at once one-half of the tariff burdens sought to be imposed upon the islanders, and, in the words of the senator from whom the information was obtained, to establish practical free trade between Puerto Rico and the United States. How much of a duty it will be proposed to make imports from Puerto Rico pay has not yet been determined. That will depend upon future developments. It is intended, however, that it shall be purely nominal. Further than this the leaders who favor free trade do not think it will be practicable to go.

The opposition in congress to free trade with Puerto Rico is such, not only from protectionists like Senator Platt of Connecticut, but as well from those who believe that congress should assert what they consider is its right to deal with its new possessions as it pleases, and the leaders believe that only a compromise is feasible and that the complete surrender of the advocates of a duty is too much to demand. They do not deny, however, the possibility that further developments may still bring about free trade.

When asked if the president was likely to agree to this further step back toward his original but lately abandoned position, the senator above quoted said he did not know, but that Mr. McKinley has said on several occasions that he would sign whatever bill congress sent him.

AMENDED TREATY IN SENATE.

The Foreign Relations Committee Makes Its Report.

Washington, March 10.—The senate has received the amended Hay-Pauncefote canal treaty. Senator Morgan has sent in a minority report favoring the treaty in the original form.

The foreign relations committee was practically unanimous in favor of the amendment. Some objection was made by Senator Morgan of Alabama, but he will not oppose the measure in the senate, accepting the change in order to hasten action. An elaborate report has been prepared by Mr. Morgan, which will be submitted to the senate in executive session. It is the opinion of the members of the committee that the senate will ratify the treaty as amended with little delay.

The Davis amendment is regarded as sufficiently ambiguous and elastic to permit this government to adopt such methods as will give it exclusive control of the isthmian canal in the event of hostilities with other naval powers. The amendment, however, does not give the United States the right to fortify or blockade the Nicaraguan canal, but it violates the features of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, allowing hostile ships to seek safety in the canal built by American capital.

The amendment allows the United States to maintain vessels of war on Lake Nicaragua and relieves this government from the proviso which prohibits war vessels from leaving the canal within twenty-four hours from the departure of a belligerent war ship. It also allows the United States war ships to take on stores in transit through the canal.

SECRET DEBATE ON BOERS.

Washington, D. C., March 10.—The presiding officer laid before the senate Friday the motion made by Mr. Mason to discharge the committee on foreign relations from further consideration of his resolutions of Dec. 6, 1899, expressing "sympathy for the South African republics in their heroic battle against cruelty and oppression." Mr. Davis, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, instantly asked that the doors be closed. The presiding officer gave that order, and the discussion was carried on behind closed doors.

Senators to Visit Cuba

Washington, March 10.—A sub-committee of the senate committee on relations with Cuba will leave here Wednesday on the dispatch-boat Dolphin to study the conditions of the island with a view to recommending legislation for its future government.

E. J. PHELPS IS DEAD.

Former Minister to England Expires in New Haven Conn.

New Haven, Conn., March 10.—Edward John Phelps, Kent professor of law at Yale and former minister to England, died at his home in this city Friday. At his bedside were his widow, his son Charles P. Phelps of Boston and his daughter, who is Mrs. Horatio Loomis of New York city. His death was due directly to an abscess of the lungs. The funeral services will be held in Battell chapel on Sunday, at which ex-President Dwight of Yale and the Rev. Dr. T. T. Merger will officiate. Sunday evening the body will be taken to Burlington, Vt., the native place of Prof. Phelps, for interment on Monday.

Terry McGovern Wins

New York, March 10.—Terry McGovern, the champion feather-weight pugilist of the world, had a narrow escape from defeat at the hands of Oscar Gardner, the Omaha Kid, at the Broadway Athletic club Friday night. Gardner was knocked clean out in the third round by a left-hand swing to the jaw. After sustaining five knock-downs in the second round the westerner had no chance, but in the first round McGovern came within a shade of losing his title, perhaps. Gardner managed to catch the champion on the point of the chin with a right-hand swing. Had this blow been delivered when the men were not half clinched McGovern might have been put to sleep, but as it was the punch was glancing and, though it sent McGovern to the boards, it did not cut him out of the contest.

The Unseen Power...

Man has so educated himself that in order to believe anything he must see the very thing itself. But the mere fact of man stating that he does not believe, simply because he cannot see the force, does in no way lessen the workings of the concealed power. No one can see the power that moves the street cars. Does anyone doubt that the car moves simply because he cannot see the power? Certain laws must be observed before results will be made manifest. No one can see the power that is behind

Debs and Harriman Nominated.
Indianapolis, Ind., March 10.—The social democratic convention adjourned Friday after nominating Eugene V. Debs for president and Job Harriman of California for vice-president. Debs accepted in a feeling speech. He said that he did not want the honor; that his health would not permit him to do the active campaigning that he thought necessary, but, as the party was determined to demand his services, he would accept. It developed that Debs, since the great railroad strike, has been paying off a debt contracted as a result of that struggle, and has labored so hard that his health is undermined.

Dealing in Options a Wager.
Lincoln, Neb., March 10.—The Supreme court has decided that dealing in options in the Chicago board of trade was a wagering transaction, and no suit for recovery of losses could be maintained. The case came up from Dixon county, where a grain buyer, who was dealing in options, induced a Chicago brokerage firm to carry for him $1,400. He did not pay, and suit to recover was brought. The court holds that contracts for future delivery of grain where no grain is transferred or intended to be delivered are against public policy, gambling, void and non-enforceable.
